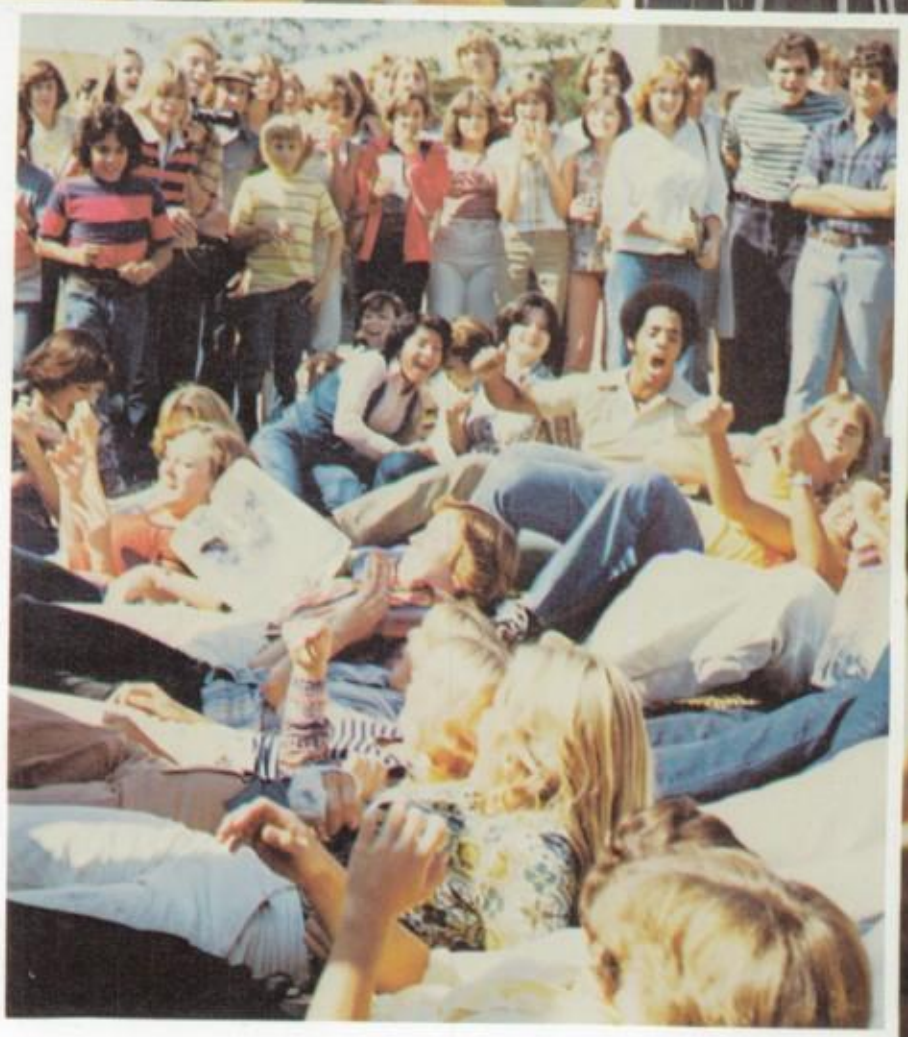
The CAMELBACK staff wishes to express its appreciation to Cheri Lieurance and Kim Matthews for the design of the beaver on the cover. We would also like to thank Wendy Raisenan for designing the silhouette of a beaver head that appears on division pages.

Along with a new year comes a new beginning...past experiences seem like only yesterday while the future seems an eternity away ...modern new facilities add a zest to school life...old clubs reform as new ones structure themselves to adapt to a changing student body...participation, the key to active and exciting high school years...an impressive-looking football team makes for more cheering and enthusiasm at games...hard work, soaring school spirit and Beaver Pride--the main ingredients to winning teams...preparation of Homecoming climaxed by the crowning of the King and Queen...school has barely started but yet the first nine weeks have already drifted by...

BEAVERS FOREVER

NEW EXPERIENCES
NEW FRIENDS



What once was adventure has now become set patterns...Fine Arts Department brings laughter and enjoyment to the hearts of many ...winter sports are anxiously awaited with an anticipation of victory carried over from fall...high spirits and unexpressible faith combine towards SHS support...from the monotony of school life comes a spark as Thanksgiving vacation finally arrives... as cold and colorless as the campus may seem, Beaver spirit keeps SHS a warm and welcoming place...students thoughts suddenly turn towards semester projects and final exams as the end of the first semester is just around the corner...''good tidings and great joy''--Christmas, here at last...

The leisurely holiday atmosphere has come and gone for another year...sweaters and coats are bundled up to keep the chill out... the growth of winter sports reaches a climactic point...students cringe as their semester exam scores are revealed...spirit raising activities reach a high point with King and Queen Court Royalties..."Send your sweetheart a flower"--marks the traditional Valentine Day carnation sale by HERO...as the first signs of spring begin to blossom, practices for spring sports begin...the last stretch of the road can clearly be seen as the final quarter rapidly approaches...

Miss Camelback

Miss Camelback is chosen by a committee, consisting of representatives from Publication, students, and administrators. The three nominees possess high qualities of devotion, service, leadership, attitude, and personality. Through these characteristics, Miss Camelback has become the highest honor which a girl can receive. The ballots of yearbook purchasers determines the final winner and a planned ceremony is held in honor of the winners. Excitement fills the auditorium as spectators view the decorated stage of potted plants and colored trellises. The ceremony is climaxed by the announcement of Miss Camelback as she and her two attendants are crowned and receive their bouquets of flowers.

Homecoming King and Queen

The traditional ceremonies of crowning Homecoming King and Queen and Court Royalties were displayed through their respective themes "We've Only Just Begun" and "Colour My World." Characteristics which these outstanding seniors portray, are devotion to one's school, high standards of character, participation in extra-curricular activities, sports, and attitude. The winners are crowned and applauded at the halftime ceremonies during the football and basketball game. The procession of ceremony includes, floats, flowers and dancing. At the end of each ceremony thoughts of next year's winners enter the student's minds.

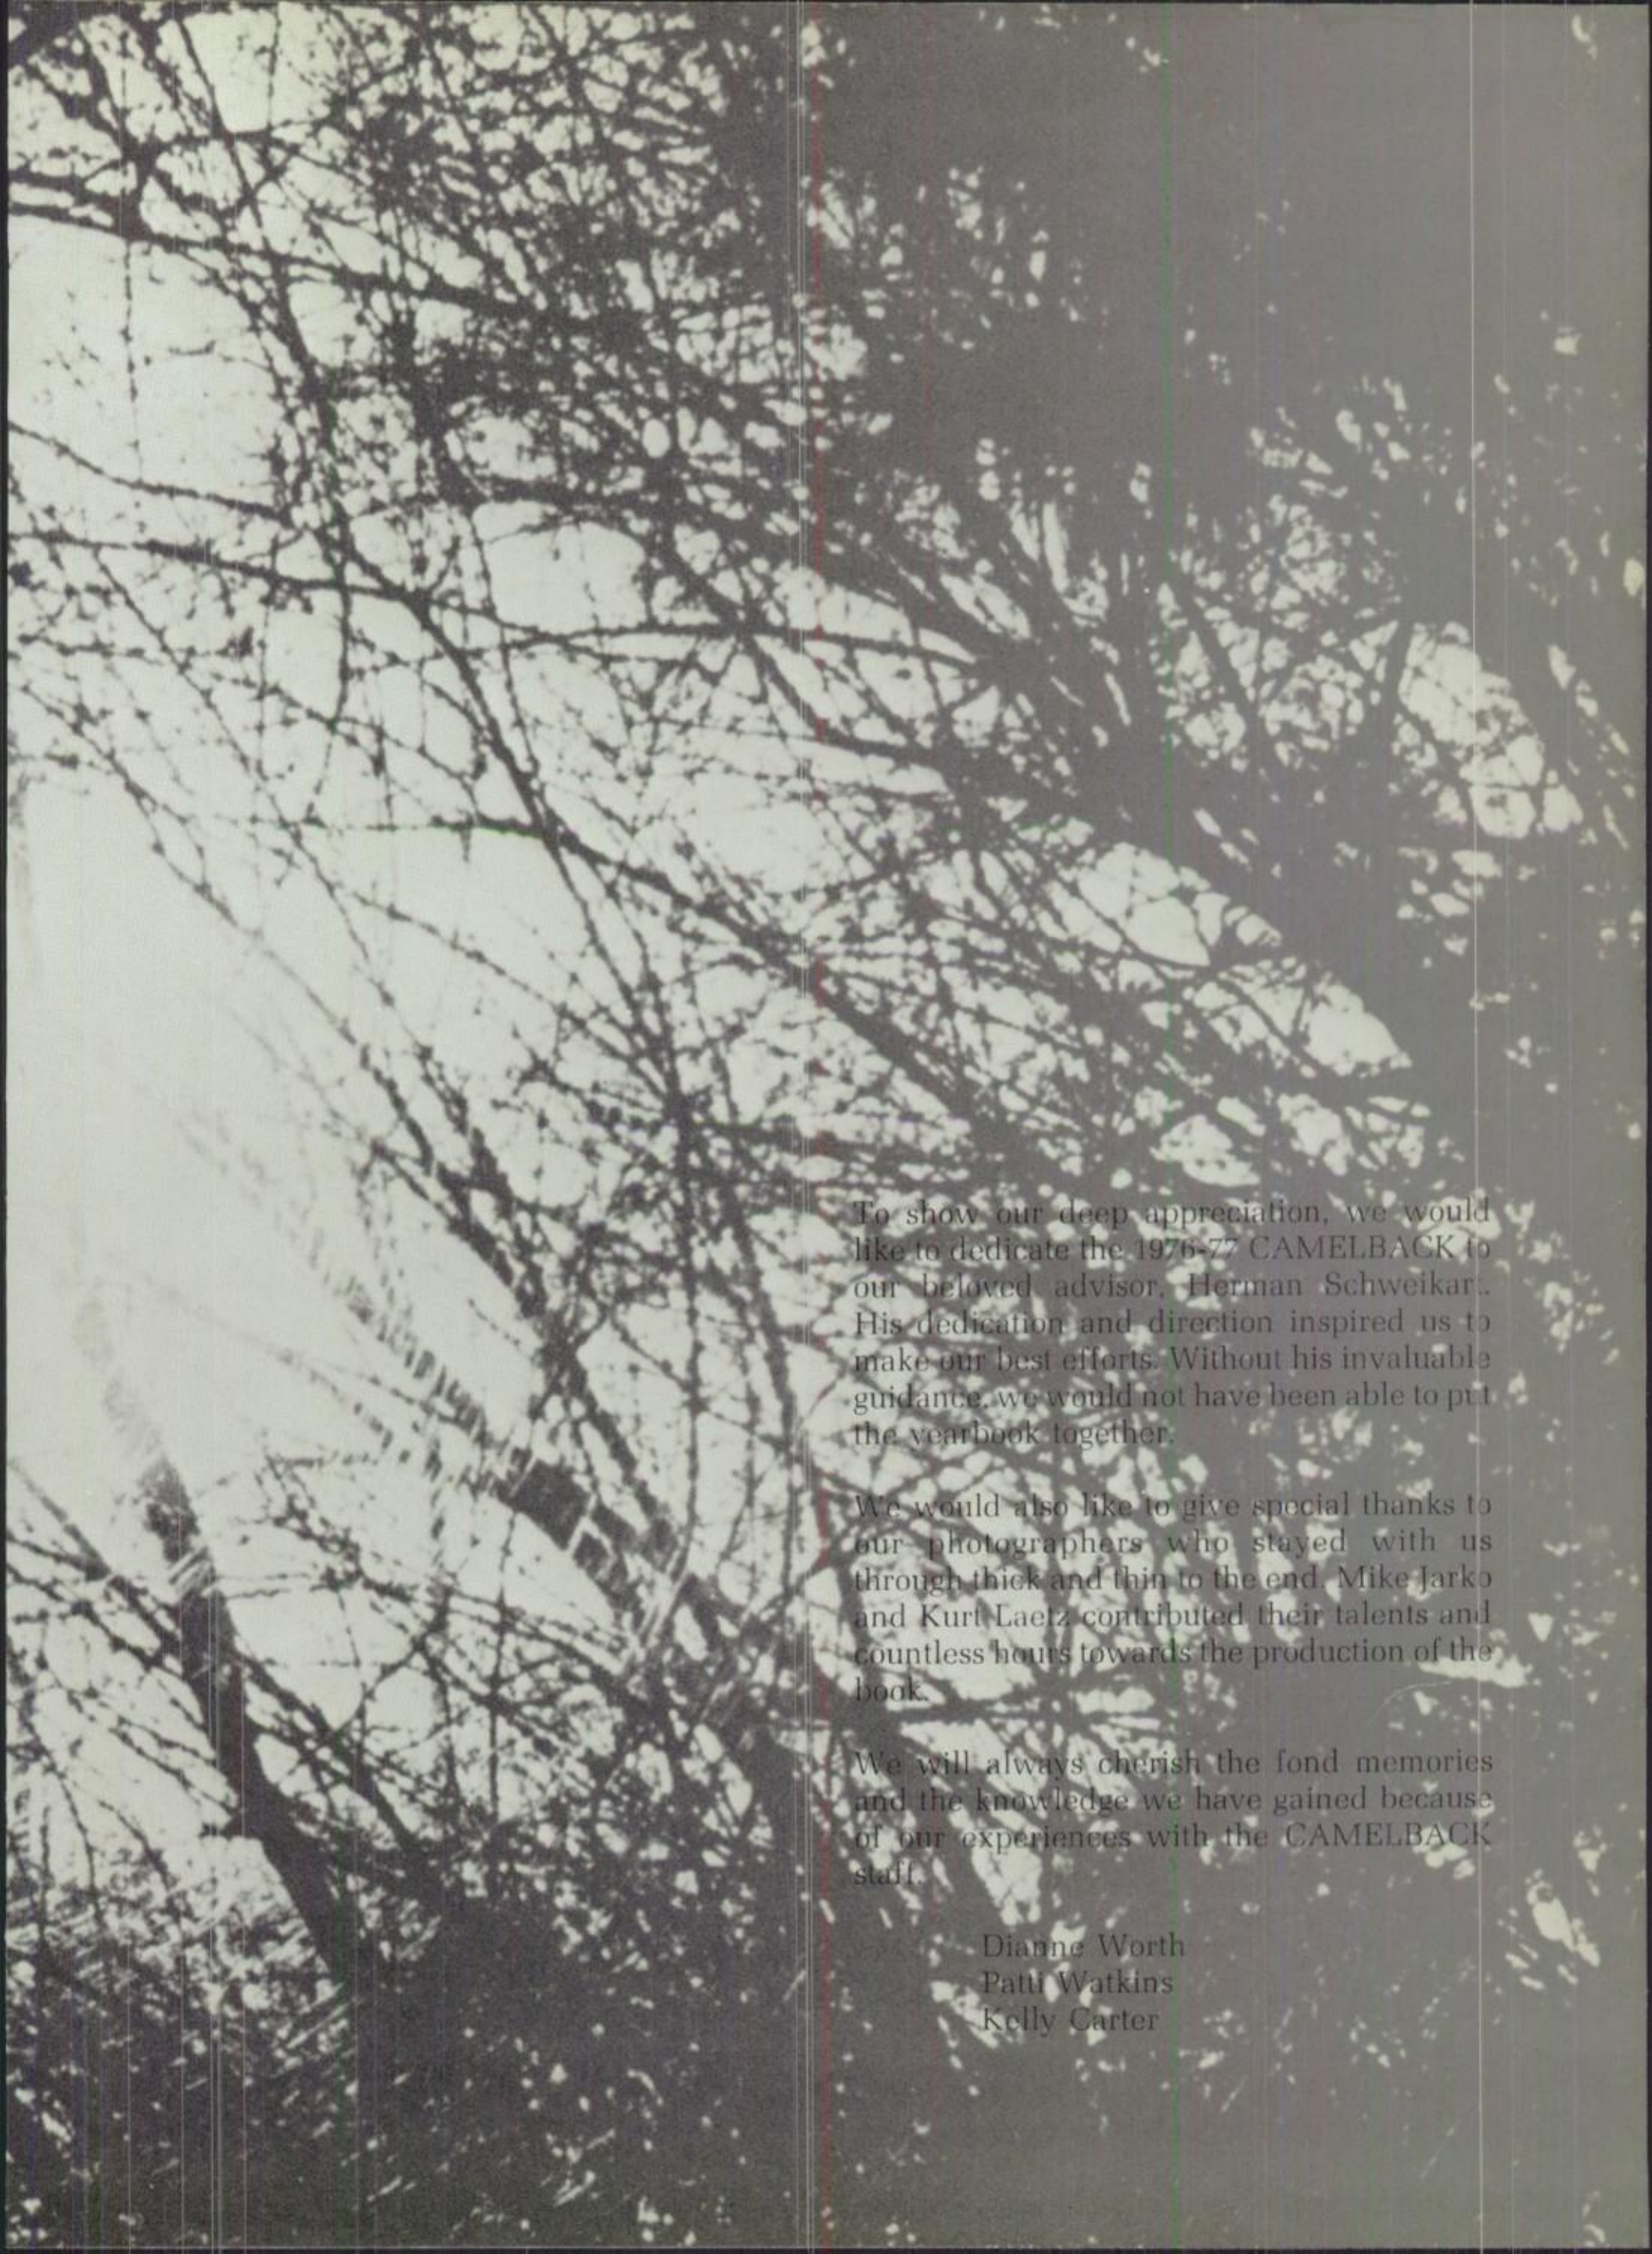
Memories Always . . .
In Memorium—
Marty Dawson
Oct. 26, 1960-Feb. 1, 1977



To show our deep appreciation, we would like to dedicate the 1976-77 CAMELBACK to our beloved advisor, Herman Schweikart. His dedication and direction inspired us to make our best efforts. Without his invaluable guidance, we would not have been able to put the yearbook together.

We would also like to give special thanks to our photographers who stayed with us through thick and thin to the end. Mike Jarko and Kurt Laetz contributed their talents and countless hours towards the production of the book.

We will always cherish the fond memories and the knowledge we have gained because of our experiences with the CAMELBACK staff.
